

Wake up it's Time for Sleep

- Become the European Sleep Expert of Tomorrow

eSleep_dHealth

IPEMED

15.2.2024.

Co-funded by
the European Union

eSleep_dHealth

Higher education Drivers of social innovations

Project eSleep_dHealth will transform 3 European universities into drivers of social innovations in the field of digital healthcare and digital sleep medicine.

Students will engage in the co-design of social innovation interventions with the elderly population, a vulnerable group that is lagging behind in benefiting from the rapid development of digital medicine. To achieve true co-creation of social innovation, the digital literacy of the vulnerable group needs to be increased.

16.10.2023.
START DATE

15.10.2025.
END DATE

250.000,00
BUDGET
IN EUR

5
TOTAL
PARTNERS

Co-funded by
the European Union

Project partners

Building Together: Our Project Partnerships – Uniting Forces for Innovation and Progress.

Project Coordinator: NetHub accelerator, Croatia

Project Partner 1: Reykjavik University, Iceland

Project Partner 2: University of Crete, Greece

Project Partner 3: IPEMED (Mediterranean Economic Foresight Institute), Croatia

Project Partner 4: University of Split, Croatia

Co-funded by
the European Union

eSleep_dHealth

Kick-off & Steering Committee meeting

The eSleep_dHealth Kick-off and Steering Committee meeting was held at the University of Split – School of Medicine on November 14th, 2023. It was co-organized and coordinated by the project partners Mediterranean Economic Foresight Institute (IPEMED) and NetHub (E.C.H.R. Ltd.).

The attendees, along with coordinators, were other Project partners – the University of Split, the University of Crete, and the University of Reykjavik. The event marked a significant step in launching of this transformative Project.

Co-funded by
the European Union

eSleep_dHealth

First short staff learning and training on design thinking and open pedagogy

University of Split organized and coordinated the First short staff learning and training for the design of the eSleep_dHealth Curriculum and Open educational resources, which took place from November 15th to November 17th, 2023, in Split, Croatia.

The primary focus of the First short staff learning and training, was centered on the principles of design thinking in curriculum design and open pedagogy education. The participants were Project partners and students who will be included in the future Project activities – eSleep_dHealth program.

Co-funded by
the European Union

eSleep_dHealth

Project events

January 8

Curriculum Design Meeting

Microsoft Teams

The goal of the meeting was to ensure the successful definition of learning objectives for each module within the eSleep_dHealth Curriculum.

A curriculum design meeting is held every week.

January 30

Second Steering Committee meeting

Microsoft Teams

The goal of the meeting was to ensure the successful implementation of the project, with five members present, each representing a PP organization.

Co-funded by
the European Union

eSleep_dHealth

Thank you!

esleepdhealth.nethub.hr

15.2.2024.